Mr. Smith successfully completes certified nursing assistant training and passes the exam. He brings his case manager the completion certificate. The case manager enters the Actual End date of training. The case manager helps Mr. Smith develop a job search plan and assists him with updating his resume.

Mr. Smith and his case manager reviewed current job openings. The case manager referred Mr. Smith to three job openings at local hospitals. Three weeks later, Mr. Smith called the case manager and said he has a job earning $2.50 more per hour. The case manager notes the employment in case notes and the common exit date is 1/03/07 based on the last day of service.
